

My Mother's Italian, My Father's Jewish & I'm In Therapy!

HILARIOUS ONE-MAN COMEDY WILL STAR PLAYWRIGHT, STEVE SOLOMON

Described as "One part lasagna, one part kreplach, and two parts Prozac," you don't have to be Jewish or Italian to love this show. All you need is to know what it feels like to leave a family dinner with heartburn and a headache! MY MOTHER'S ITALIAN, MY FATHER'S JEWISH & I'M IN THERAPY! played for two years in New York City and has toured internationally in more than 100 cities.

Here's what some critics had to say about the show:

"A 90-minute laugh-fest!" — Hadassah Magazine

"Hysterically funny! Non-stop laughs all the way! I can't recommend this show enough, it's just great!" — Regis Philbin, Live With Regis & Kelly

"As heartwarming as comfort food. Everyone can relate to this!"

— Martha Stewart Living Radio

Written and performed by the playwright and star of the original New York production—award-winning Boynton Beach resident Steve Solomon—this hilarious one-man comedy is based on the author's life growing up in a wacky family noted for its bi-ethnic diversity and aptitude for dysfunctional behavior, and all the people in his life whose sole purpose was to drive him into therapy! Solomon, whose mother is from Palermo and whose father is from Russia, grew up as one of two siblings in Brooklyn.

The production was awarded "Favorite New Play" by Broadway.com and won the "Broadway Theater Fans Choice Award" on BroadwayWorld.com. The show was also nominated for awards by The Connecticut Critics Circle and the San Francisco Drama Desk.

The show is produced by Philip Roger Roy, Dana Matthow, and Bud Martin. For more information, visit www.ItalianJewish.com.
