Are you looking for a professional travel companion to provide travel assistance during your trip?

By Doug Iannelli

Flying Companions is your answer. Our travel companions accompany you on your trip and provide travel assistance every step of the way to make your trip comfortable and stress-free from start to finish.

Whether you're a senior traveler, a person with a disability, someone with travel anxiety, or just someone who prefers not to travel alone, our travel companions can help make your trip possible and enjoyable.

Our travel companions can pick you up at your home or meet you at your departure airport and then provide travel assistance with all aspects of your trip—from baggage handling, check-in, and security, through the flight, and all the way to baggage claim—everything you need to get safely and comfortably to your final destination. Our travel companions can also accompany you throughout an entire trip, providing travel assistance from beginning to end.

Many people want or need to travel by air but are reluctant to go alone or simply need some help along the way. Seniors, persons with disabilities, persons with flying anxiety—each person needs a different level of travel assistance. Whether you need wheelchair and bathroom assistance or simply the reassurance of having a travel companion during the trip, Flying Companions can help.

Our travel companions also coordinate and communicate with your loved ones throughout the trip to make sure they know you're safe and sound.

Flying Companions can provide travel assistance worldwide. With our travel companions, you can enjoy the freedom to go anywhere. So go ahead! Spend Thanksgiving with your children in Los Angeles! Go to your grandchild's graduation in New York! Be there for your niece's wedding in Paris! You can do it with Flying Companions!
