A Letter From the Delray Grande Residents:

Let it hereby be known that we, the residents of the Delray Grande Condo, do express our deepest gratitude and thanks to all the members of the staff and management who gave us devoted service during a very stressful time.

We hesitate mentioning names, for fear of leaving someone out. To all of you, you gave us assurance, you fed us, you nurtured us, and you made certain we survived WILMA as comfortably as possible.

For all that you did, we will never forget your help, your concern, your being with us when we needed you most.
